Psalm One

Blessed are they who shun unwise advice

Paraphrase by P.B. Irvine

| Λц       | G                  | D     | G     | С             | G          | D           | Em   | C   | D    | G                   | G          | С           | G    | С          | G            |
|----------|--------------------|-------|-------|---------------|------------|-------------|------|-----|------|---------------------|------------|-------------|------|------------|--------------|
| / #} | 20                 | •     | •     | 0             | 0          | •           | •    | •   | •    | 0                   | 0          | •           | •    | 0          | 0            |
| )        | 1. Bles -2. To |       |       | theyGod's | whoown | shunIaw |      |     |      | - vice,- light, | whofor | do- e - |      | makeon | thetheir |
|          | 3. They            | grow  | as    | do            | the        | shoots      | •    |     |      | trees,              | whose      | roots       | are  | quench'd   | Ьу           |
|          | 4. The             | wic · | - ked | are           | not        | S0,         | but  | are | like | chaff               | that's     | swept       | a ·  | - way      | Ьу           |
|          | 5. In              | the   | last  | days,         | all        | wrongs      | will | be  | set  | right:              | the        | right ·     | eous | will       | re           |
|          |                    |       |       |               |            |             |      |     |      |                     |            |             |      |            |              |
| ) 4      | Am Em              | n An  | n     | ļ             | )          | D           | Em   | 7   | G    | D                   | GD         | )/F# E      | m7   | A D        |              |
| / ₽      |                    |       |       |               |            | 0           | -    |     | a    | 0                   |            | •           | •    |            |              |

|   |             |             | -       |                | 6            | 0       |            | 1 11      |        |
|---|-------------|-------------|---------|----------------|--------------|---------|------------|-----------|--------|
|   |             |             | 0       |                |              |         |            |           |        |
| J |             |             |         |                |              |         | ,          | ·         |        |
| 7 | wic – ked   | way their   | own,    | re – fu – sii  | ng ev'-      | ry tu   | urn with   | loa - ded | dice,  |
|   | minds from  | dawn to     | dusk,   | they me-d      | i – tate     | on i    | it each    | day and   | night, |
|   | a clear     | moun - tain | stream, | bear - ing the | eir fruit, v | vhen si | um - mer   | comes, we | see    |
|   | ev' – ry    | va - grant  | wind.   | Sin - ners w   | ll ne –      | ver ha  | ave the    | fi - nal  | laugh: |
|   | ceive their | just re –   | ward.   | Wic – ked w    | ll take      | the pa  | ath that's | void of   | light: |

TOULON